HOW DOES SUSTAINABILITY HELP STARTUPS ACHIEVE UNICORN STATUS?

COMBINATION OF GREAT OPPORTUNITIES

According to Deloitte, young professionals expect not only creative freedom but also adherence to ethical standards and corporate accountability for promises.

According to the investment bank Morgan Stanley, almost 90% of investors say they are interested in investing in sustainable businesses.

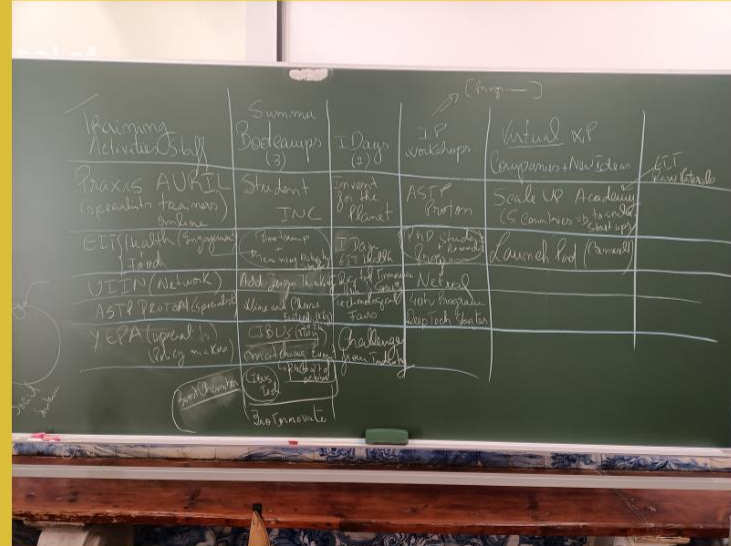

Decision-makers used to think that a responsible approach to the environment hindered rapid business development, but today sustainability is one of the most important catalysts in the startup ecosystem

From May 29th to June 1st, the University of Évora hosted the First EU GREEN WP 4 Staff Week

Identification of success cases and other networks of interest

EU GREEN's objective is also to amplify good practices that Universities already have, also using their contact networks. For this very reason, we started by thinking about programs and entities that could boost WP4 activities.

Take home messages:

- Projects that seek to change paradigms require the commitment of representatives from all sectors of the organization.
- In projects with participation from different countries, it is important to promote rapprochement between different work cultures.
- A general organizational structure is important to define the roles of each work group and ensure that the hierarchy of each institution is safeguarded.
- Agile methodologies are a good way to promote effective and dynamic networking.
- It is important to ensure that resources are used effectively. Using incremental journey/value-chain strategies reduces recruitment effort and increases the impact of actions.

Thank you!
